

They Went Another Way...Biographies

"Surely all art is the result of one's having been in danger, of having gone through an experience all the way to the end, where no one can go any further" -Rilke

Michelle Addison

Michelle Addison is a graduate of The University of Victoria Theatre Performance Program. She has been pursuing acting in the film and television industry in Vancouver for the last 6 years. Her experience ranges from producer (The House of Yes, 2004 at The Waterfront Theatre), actress (Stargate Atlantis, Monk, The Dead Zone and most recently a movie of the week called Four) and youth acting teacher (Tarlington Training). They Went Another Way is her first foray into playwriting. She also is the founding member of For The Greater Good Productions whose mandate is to create original works to inspire others to think outside the box.

Tanya Reid

Tanya Reid began her professional career as an actor when she broke into the commercial and music video scene in 1995. She's since amassed an impressive list of film and television credits including Da Vinci's Inquest, Point Blank, and Intelligence. She recently returned from Toronto where for three years, she played "Kennedy Marsh" in CTV's Gemini award winning series "The Eleventh Hour."

Tanya's creative passions are not solely in front of the camera; however, she has played various roles behind the scenes too. Assistant director, casting director, and writer are just a few of the titles she's had. She's just finished co-writing her first screenplay and is looking forward to its production. Tanya's proudest accomplishment, in her eyes, is her son Leo who was born January 20th, 2006.

Terri-Lyn Storey

Terri-Lyn Storey is an award winning Vancouver-based actor who studied acting at The Actors Studio in New York City (Masters Degree Program), The Vancouver Film School and Lyric School of Acting.

Ms. Storey has been touring with solo theater shows across Canada for the past three years. The Hope Slide and Torched both won many critics choice awards as part of their cross Canada tours and Torched was selected Pick of the Vancouver Fringe Festival in 2005. Ms. Storey has played to sold-out audiences and received much critical acclaim from across the country.

Ms. Storey has traveled throughout 28 countries across Africa, Asia, and Europe, including Romania where she spent 3 months working with a famine relief program in orphanages and remote rural areas. She loves the art of storytelling.
